Physical Creativity Meets Digital Learning

Product

Children color a Scanvas sheet, photograph it in the browser, and their own artwork comes alive with motion, sound, and facts.

Customers · B2B-first

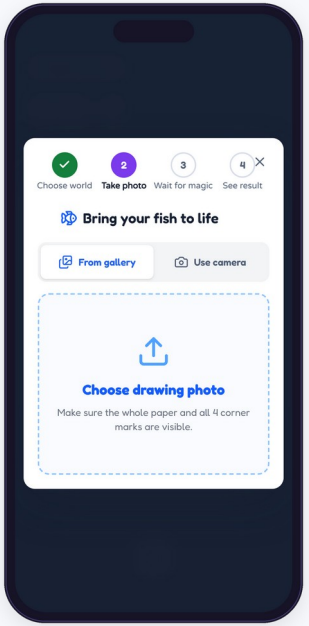

Our primary target customers are PAUD/TK, schools, and event organizers seeking interactive educational activities for groups of children. Parents are our B2C customers through physical creative packs, providing a direct channel to validate demand and repeat purchases.

Value proposition

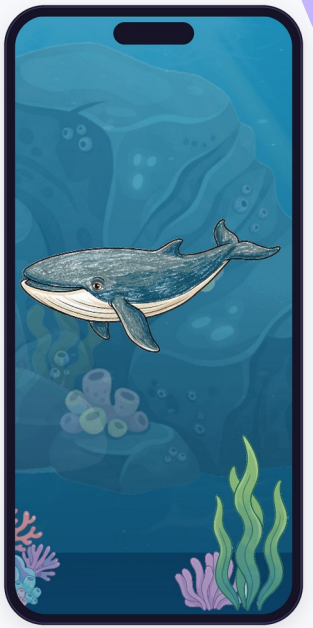

Hands-on creativity stays at the center; technology extends it into interactive learning, with no app to install.

Landing page

Scan / upload

Alive in the world

Creativity Often Stops at the Paper

Children love drawing and coloring, but once the page is finished, the learning moment ends. Many screen-based activities are built around watching and swiping, not creating.

On paper

Creative and hands-on, but it ends when the page is done.

Create → Finished → Stop

On screens

Engaging, but children mostly watch instead of make.

Watch → Swipe → Watch

FOR SCHOOLS & ORGANIZERS · VALIDATING

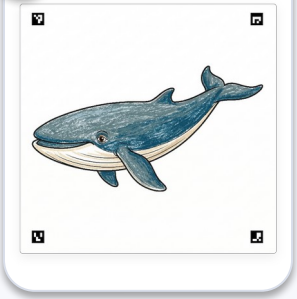

Creative sessions for 20–30 children need ready-made activities that are engaging, educational, and easy for teachers to run.

Opportunity: join hands-on creativity, digital play, and learning.

Their Creation Becomes the Character

Children color a printed sheet, scan it through the website, and watch their own artwork become an animated character with sound, motion, and educational content.

Competitive Landscape

Competitors prove the category; Scanvas combines web access, the child's own character, and shared worlds.

Conversion

Every demo asks for a paid session; every digital trial points to a pack.

Retention

Ocean Artist lessons and new worlds give children a reason to come back.

Impact: Turning Screen Time Into Active Creative Learning

SDG 4 · Quality Education

Creativity

Children create first, before any digital experience.

Learning

Every creation unlocks sounds, stories, and facts about the object.

Accessibility

Browser-based: no special app to install.

Beneficiaries: children aged 3–10, parents, teachers, and PAUD/schools

Minimal child data, consent by adults · learning outcomes not yet measured

Indicators we will track

- ✓ Children reached per session
- ✓ Scan success (drawing → alive)
- ✓ Lesson completion (pilot)
- ✓ Repeat participation
- ✓ Simple learning recall
- ✓ Teacher & parent satisfaction

Funding strategy

DSC support

Requested as a contribution toward the 12-month capital plan, subject to the program's funding limits.

Additional financing

To be secured as needed. Unconfirmed funding is not counted as available capital.

Capital deployment

Spending will be phased according to funding availability and validation results.

Milestone-based deployment

M1–3 Prove Repeat Value

Improve scan reliability and launch the Ocean Artist 3-lesson pilot. Measure lesson completion, repeat creation, and willingness to pay.

M3–6 Validate Commercial Demand

Convert institutional pilots into paid sessions. Test B2C conversion, repeat bookings, and contribution margins.

M6–12 Scale What Works

Expand institutional acquisition, improve Scanvas Studio, and develop learning content only where demand is validated.

Expected outcomes · base-case targets

- 48 paid institutional sessions
- 600 B2C packs sold
- ≥20% institutional rebooking
- ≥95% scan success
- Rp77.4M first-year customer revenue

Targets are projections, not guaranteed outcomes.

Milestones & Growth Roadmap

Prove the Magic → Prove Repeat Value → Validate the Commercial Model → Scale What Works

NOW

Prove the Magic

- ✓ Product live
- ✓ 2 interactive worlds
- ✓ 1 TPA pilot · 30 children

IMPROVE

Scan success · first-time experience

MONTH 1–3

Prove Repeat Value

- → Ocean Artist 3-lesson pilot
- → Not a full LMS

MEASURE

Lesson completion · next-lesson start · repeat creation · willingness to pay

MONTH 3–6

Validate the Commercial Model

- → Paid B2B sessions
- → B2C pack conversion
- → Studio MVP as pilots need it

MEASURE

Repeat booking · margin per session

MONTH 6–12

Scale What Works

- → More institutions
- → Content by demand
- → Base-case sales targets

GATE

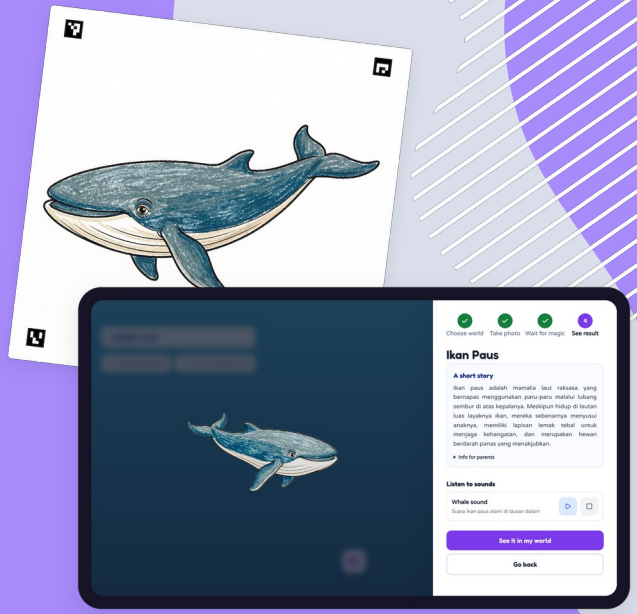

Only if validation supports it

12-month base-case targets

48 paid sessions	600 B2C packs	Up to 1,440 children*	≥20% rebooking	≥95% scan success	Rp77.4M revenue

*Maximum capacity: 48 sessions × 30 children, not a guaranteed number. At an average of 25 children per session: 1,200.

A child’s creativity shouldn’t end when the coloring is finished.

Scanvas turns every creation into another chance to play, explore, and learn.

Why support Scanvas now

- ✓ Live product, first pilot done
- ✓ Next 12 months prove repeat value
- ✓ Every rupiah released by a validation gate

Support Scanvas to turn one magic moment into repeatable creative learning for schools and families.

Appendix A · Technology Edge

1 Computer-Vision Scan

Four printed markers guide perspective correction, cropping, and masking of the photo.

3 Code-Linked Sheets

Each printed sheet links to its template and its digital world.

2 Personalized Animation

The child’s extracted artwork, not a stock character, is animated in the world.

4 Reusable Content Engine

New worlds are new sheet templates plus world assets on the same pipeline, so content scales without rebuilding the product.

Cash at month 12 (illustrative)	Rp68.7M	Rp95.4M

Assumptions

- Projection from the founders' model (Sep 2026), not actual results
- Pack Rp49K, direct cost Rp20K · session Rp1M (up to 30 children), direct cost Rp250K
- Volume: 25–50 packs and 2–4 sessions a month
- Founders Rp4M a month each (lean, below market)
- Studio and lesson revenue excluded · grant money is financing, never revenue

Illustrative funding scenario

Assuming the full Rp200M capital plan is secured and available at the start of the period, with no additional cash flows beyond those modeled:

- Conservative — Rp68.7M remaining
- Base case — Rp95.4M remaining

These figures represent simplified illustrative balances, not confirmed cash reserves or a complete monthly cash-flow forecast. Actual runway depends on funding secured, timing of disbursements, sales collection, and working-capital requirements.
